Thursday in the evening the Regiment reached Lebanon, having made 65 miles in 6 days. The road was very deep in general. After a few days rest the Regiment continued on marching forward the 10th of February at 8 o'clock A.M. camping the first night in the neighborhood of Hartford Mo the second night near a farm between Hartford and Springfield Mo the third night at Springfield in the Seash Camp which had been left by them about 24 hours before our arrival so the Regiment marched every day (being always pretty close to the enemy's heels) until it arrived at Sugar Creek Feby 19th where it encamped one day and a half. Thence started to a camp where the whole force under the command of General Curtis was united and called Camp Halleck in Arkansas arriving on the 20th and in the morning. On the route several places were passed through as Little York, Cassville and Keetsville Mo. all were lonesome and partially destroyed. During this time the regiment moved about 150 miles

On the next day the Regiment took position on a hill North-West of Sugar Creek Hollow till eve 4 o'clock when it hurried to the battlefield, but got not in to the engagement as cheerfully was expected by all the boys (The battle lasted about 9 hours this day commencing at 10 o'clock A.M. and ending at 7 o'clock P.M.) The Regiment encamped that night in a large corn-field near the enemys position without fire and tents. In the morning the enemy opened fire on us again at 7 o'clock. On this day of battle the 15th Regt Mo Vols. was posted to support a Battery on the wing of our left. The enemy fled after a hard fight of 3 hours. Putting after him, the Regiment encamped in a hollow near Telegraph road a few miles within the Missouri line and marched the next morning on the 9th to Keosauqua Mo hence it returned, finding the enemy escaped during a heavy rain to Camp Halleck near Battlefield Ark. Remaining here 3 days whilst the Regiment was on picket guard day and night. Removed to the battle ground at Pea Ridge Ark. North east. On the 16th of March camp was broke up again after a three days encampment and the Regiment was shot toward Bentonville Ark going in camp there after a march of 10 miles remained two days hence it removed back toward Keosauqua Mo on the 19th of March travelling about 16 miles to camp Hoffman 3 miles West of Keosauqua where it is still
